A NEW BEGINNING,
A BLUEPRINT FOR PROBLEM
GAMBLING TREATMENT

The 2011 Problem Gambling Training Summit, A New Beginning, a Blueprint for Problem Gambling Treatment, will focus on traditional and non-traditional problem gambling treatment services and will provide tools to enhance skills for treatment providers.

- OPG will present various alternative approaches to treatment modalities and methodologies
- Opening ceremony will highlight the Native American community in relation to the California tribal gaming industry
- Check out the “new” state-funded multimodal stepped-care approach in providing problem gambling treatment services

A myriad of expert speakers will make presentations appropriate for treatment providers, law enforcement representatives, legislators, gamblers in recovery, and the general public.

- Mary Lou Costanzo, LCSW, NCGC II Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services, Connecticut Problem Gambling Services Clinical Director – “Trauma, Gender and Problem Gambling” learn how prior traumatic experiences have affected women dealing with problem gambling
- Joanna Franklin MS, NCGC II Director of Training and Network Development, Trimeridian, Inc. – “Structuring Treatment for Problem Gamblers: Including Youth and Families” will provide tools for use in treatment planning with clients
- Kent Woo, MSW, Executive Director & Michael Liao, MSW, Director of Programs NICOS Chinese Health Coalition – “Navigating the Intricacies of Implementing Non-traditional Treatment Services” learn about California’s new telephone counseling treatment option
