

New Board of Directors – Fiscal 2019

APGSA is pleased to announce a new Board of Directors and Officers for fiscal year 2019. The new roles were announced July 19th at the APGSA Annual Meeting during the National Conference on Problem Gambling in Cleveland, OH.

Terri Sue Canale-Dalman, Chief of the California Office of Problem Gambling, will serve a second year as APGSA President. Canale-Dalman has been an APGSA member for 10 years, as well as fulfilling California's Chief role during that time. At the 2018 National Conference on Problem Gambling, she was awarded the Don Hulen Annual Award for Advocacy. Rounding out the leadership team are:

- Vice President Jeremy Wampler, LCSW, ICGC II, BACC, LADC, Program Director, State of Connecticut Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services, Problem Gambling Services.
- Secretary Jennifer Berg, Coordinator, Problem Gambling Services, New York State Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Services.
- Treasurer Eric Preuss, Program Manager, Iowa Gambling Treatment Program, Iowa Department of Public Health/Division of Behavioral Health.
- Executive Director Kathleen M. Scanlan has held the position since 2014. Previously, she was the Executive Director of the Massachusetts Council on Compulsive Gambling.

Additional APGSA board members are:

- Nicole Corbin, LPC, Manager, Addiction Treatment, Recovery, and Prevention Services, Oregon Health Authority.
- Stacey Frohnappfel-Hasson, MPA, OCPC, Chief, Bureau of Problem Gambling, Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services.
- Helen Ghebre, Program and Policy Consultant, Minnesota Department of Human Services Alcohol and Drug Abuse Division.
- Liz Lanza, Director, Office of Compulsive & Problem Gambling, Pennsylvania Gambling Control Board.

"The APGSA fulfills an important role as the only national organization for state administrators responsible dedicated to ensuring quality services for prevention, treatment and recovery related to problem gambling. It's an honor to lead this group of public servants focused on improving the lives of their states' citizens," remarked President Canale-Dalman.
